

2021 Got Documentation – Clinical and Practical Documentation of Chiropractic

Course Objectives – 4 Hour Webinar

Presenter: Gregg Friedman, D.C.

Course Objectives

Hour 1

1. Illustrate four effects of good documentation.
2. Define the Problem Oriented Medical Record (POMR).
3. Demonstrate taking a complete patient history – Onset, Provocative/Palliative, Quality, Radiating, Site/Severity
4. Demonstrate taking a complete patient history – Onset, Provocative/Palliative, Quality, Radiating, Site/Severity

Hour 2

5. Define the Evaluation and Management Examination for the musculoskeletal system.
6. Describe the reasons for the E/M exam.
7. Demonstrate the proper documentation of exam findings
8. Discuss the new E/M rules from Jan. 1, 2021

Hour 3

9. Define the concept of functional outcome assessments in clinical practice.
10. Distinguish between subjective and objective outcome assessments.
11. Describe the P.A.R.T. format of documentation.
12. Define the P of P.A.R.T. from Centers for Medicare/Medicaid Services
13. Illustrate the proper documentation of Assessment.

Hour 4

14. Demonstrate the proper documentation of Plan for daily visits.
15. Illustrate the proper documentation of therapeutic procedures.
16. Demonstrate the proper documentation of a treatment plan
17. Describe documenting with specific goals.